

Pittsburgh:

Answers to True/False Questions

1. True – Pittsburgh is known as the “City of Bridges” because it has more than 440 bridges.
2. False – The steel industry in Pittsburgh declined in the late 20th century and is no longer strong today.
3. True – The Duquesne Incline was built in the 19th century (in 1877).
4. False – The Andy Warhol Museum is dedicated to the work of just one artist, Andy Warhol.
5. False – Pittsburgh has two well-known universities: the University of Pittsburgh and Carnegie Mellon University.

Answers Comprehension Questions

1. What are the three rivers that meet in Pittsburgh?
The three rivers are the Allegheny River, the Monongahela River, and the Ohio River.
2. Why was Pittsburgh called the “Steel City” in the past?
Pittsburgh was called the “Steel City” because it was famous for its steel industry during the Industrial Revolution.
3. What are some activities people can do at Point State Park?
People can walk, relax, and enjoy the views at Point State Park. They can also see the large fountain and enjoy the scenery where the three rivers meet.
4. Who was the Duquesne Incline built for, and what can you see from it?
The Duquesne Incline was originally built to carry workers up and down Mount Washington. Today, visitors can see amazing views of the city and rivers from the top.
5. What is special about the Cathedral of Learning at the University of Pittsburgh?
The Cathedral of Learning is one of the tallest university buildings in the world and is an iconic landmark in Pittsburgh.
6. Name two famous sports teams from Pittsburgh and the sports they play.
 - Pittsburgh Steelers: They play American football.
 - Pittsburgh Penguins: They play ice hockey.
7. What is a Primanti Brothers Sandwich, and why is it unique?
A Primanti Brothers Sandwich is unique because it includes meat, cheese, coleslaw, and fries all inside the sandwich.
8. Which neighborhood in Pittsburgh is known for its universities and museums?
The Oakland neighborhood is known for its universities and museums.
9. What happens during the Pittsburgh St. Patrick’s Day Parade?
During the Pittsburgh St. Patrick’s Day Parade, there are many floats, bands, and people dressed in green celebrating Irish culture.
10. What can visitors see at the Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Gardens?
Visitors can see many different types of plants and flowers from around the world, including tropical plants and desert plants.

11. What type of exhibits can you find at the Mattress Factory?

The Mattress Factory features large, interactive contemporary art installations that visitors can walk through.

12. What is the name of the largest park in Pittsburgh, and what activities can you do there?

The largest park is Frick Park. Visitors can go hiking, play sports, and enjoy nature in the park.

13. How do people celebrate Light Up Night in Pittsburgh?

People celebrate Light Up Night with fireworks, music, food, and holiday lights. It marks the start of the holiday season.

14. What is special about the food culture in Pittsburgh?

Pittsburgh's food culture is special because it has unique local dishes like the Primanti Brothers Sandwich and foods influenced by Eastern European traditions, like pierogies.

15. Why is the Strip District a popular place to visit in Pittsburgh?

The Strip District is popular because it has many markets, shops, and restaurants. It is a great place to find fresh food and try different cuisines.