

Phoenix Answers

True/False Questions Answers

1. True
(Phoenix is the capital city of Arizona.)
 2. True
(The Hohokam people built canals to bring water to their crops.)
 3. False
(Phoenix has hot summers and mild winters, with little or no snowfall.)
 4. True
(Camelback Mountain is famous for looking like a camel lying down.)
 5. False
(The Arizona Diamondbacks are a baseball team, not a basketball team.)
-

Comprehension Questions Answers

1. Why is Phoenix called the “Valley of the Sun”?
Phoenix is called the “Valley of the Sun” because it is located in a desert valley and has many sunny days throughout the year.
2. When was Phoenix officially founded as a city?
Phoenix was officially founded as a city in 1867.
3. What kind of weather is Phoenix famous for?
Phoenix is famous for its hot weather, especially in the summer, and its sunny days almost all year round.
4. What can you find at Papago Park?
At Papago Park, you can find red rock formations, hiking trails, the Phoenix Zoo, and the Desert Botanical Garden.
5. What do people do at the Phoenix Zoo and Desert Botanical Garden?
At the Phoenix Zoo, people can learn about and see animals, while at the Desert Botanical Garden, they can learn about desert plants.
6. Why do many people move to Phoenix in the winter?
Many people move to Phoenix in the winter to escape the cold weather in other places and enjoy the warm, sunny climate.
7. Which university in Phoenix is one of the largest in the United States?
Arizona State University (ASU) is one of the largest universities in the United States, and it has a campus in downtown Phoenix.
8. What kinds of food are popular in Phoenix?
Mexican food is very popular in Phoenix, including dishes like tacos and burritos, as well as spicy salsa and guacamole.
9. What sports can you watch in Phoenix, and where do the teams play?
In Phoenix, you can watch baseball (Arizona Diamondbacks at Chase Field), basketball (Phoenix Suns at Footprint Center), football (Arizona Cardinals at State Farm Stadium), and hockey (Arizona Coyotes in Glendale).

10. What are some challenges that Phoenix faces as a city?

Some challenges Phoenix faces are the extreme heat in the summer, the need to manage water carefully due to the desert environment, and traffic problems because of the city's rapid growth.