

True/False Questions

1. Alfred Hitchcock was born in Hollywood, California. (False)
 - Hitchcock was born in London, England.
2. Hitchcock started his career in film by designing title cards for silent films. (True)
 - He began his career as a title card designer.
3. Hitchcock's film Psycho was not very popular when it was first released. (False)
 - Psycho was a huge success and is considered one of the greatest films ever made.
4. Hitchcock was known for making brief appearances in his own films. (True)
 - He often made cameo appearances in his films, which became one of his trademarks.
5. Hitchcock's last film was The Birds, released in 1976. (False)
 - Hitchcock's last film was Family Plot, released in 1976.

Open-Ended Questions

1. When and where was Alfred Hitchcock born?
 - Alfred Hitchcock was born on August 13, 1899, in London, England.
2. What kind of childhood did Hitchcock have?
 - Hitchcock had a strict and disciplined childhood, often feeling lonely and shy. He spent much of his time reading and watching plays, particularly enjoying stories about crime and mystery.
3. How did Hitchcock start his career in the film industry?
 - Hitchcock started his career by designing title cards for silent films, which led to him working on other aspects of filmmaking.
4. What was Hitchcock's first successful film, and what was it about?
 - Hitchcock's first successful film was The Lodger: A Story of the London Fog (1927), a thriller about a man suspected of being a serial killer.
5. Why did Hitchcock move to Hollywood, and what was his first major success there?
 - Hitchcock moved to Hollywood in 1939 to work in the American film industry, where his first major success was Rebecca (1940), which won the Academy Award for Best Picture.
6. Name two of Hitchcock's most famous films and briefly describe their plots.
 - Psycho (1960) is about a woman who steals money and ends up at a mysterious motel, famous for its shocking twists and the "shower scene." The Birds (1963) is a horror-thriller about a small town attacked by large groups of birds.

7. What are some of the techniques Hitchcock used to create suspense in his films?

- Hitchcock used suspense by showing the audience something dangerous that the characters did not know about, creating tension. He also used strong visuals, creative camera angles, and music to build suspense.

8. What challenges did Hitchcock face in his career?

- Some of Hitchcock's films were not well-received when first released, and he faced pressure to make hit movies. He was also known for being demanding on set, which sometimes made it difficult for others to work with him.

9. What was Hitchcock's last film, and when was it released?

- Hitchcock's last film was Family Plot, released in 1976.

10. How is Alfred Hitchcock remembered today?

- Alfred Hitchcock is remembered as one of the greatest film directors of all time. His films are still popular, and his influence can be seen in many movies and TV shows. He is known as the "Master of Suspense" and continues to inspire filmmakers and audiences around the world.