Discussion Questions

Sample answers (other reasonable answers are acceptable):

1. Do you think it would be hard to play football until you are 50? Why?

Sample answer: Yes, it would be very hard because most players' bodies get tired and slow as they get older. You would need to be very healthy and take very good care of yourself like Stanley Matthews did.

2. Why is it important to be kind and fair when playing sports?

Sample answer: Being kind and fair makes the game better for everyone. It helps people enjoy the sport and sets a good example for others. It also shows respect for other players and the game.

3. What can young football players learn from Stanley Matthews?

Sample answer: They can learn that good habits are very important, like eating healthy food and exercising regularly. They can also learn that being kind and fair is more important than just winning.

4. Do you think football players today live like Stanley Matthews did? Why or why not?

Sample answer: Some do, but many don't. Today's players might have better training and diet plans, but they might not be as disciplined as Matthews was with his simple lifestyle and early bedtimes.

5. Why do you think people still remember Stanley Matthews today?

Sample answer: People remember him because he was not just a great player but also a good person. He played for a very long time, never got in trouble, and helped many other people.
